

BERTIE HORNE
CWGC shows as Bartie Horne
THIEPVAL MEMORIAL 7D

Private, 12045, 2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards

Died 16th September 1916, aged 35

Born in Marylebone, Middlesex on 26th May 1881.

Son of George and Rosina Horne (nee Bell) of 20 Ashmill Street, Marylebone, London.

Married Catherine Hyman in 1914. Lived at 39 Rackham Street, North Kensington, London.

After his death Catherine married Thomas Stanton.

Employed as a parcel porter in GWR's Traffic Department at Paddington Station.

Enlisted at Marylebone, Middlesex.

Went to France on 9th February 1915.

Killed near Lesboeufs.

Bertie's fork was found by a French farmer.

Source: Great Western Railway Magazine & Sandra Gittins & Philippe Drouin